

A Satanic Opening to the Paris Olympics

The Paris Olympics 2024 opened with mockery, insult and belittlement of Jesus the son of Mary (peace be upon him) and his apostles.¹

The hyper-sexualised and Satanic depiction of "The Last Supper"² included an obese lesbian woman (in place of Jesus) wearing an aureole halo crown, grotesque trans-figures, drag queens, and queers!

Islam rejects and deplores the belittlement of any of Allah's Prophets. Here are ten points every person should know about Jesus the son of Mary, the Prophet of God, His Messenger and His servant.

ONE: Muslims believe that Jesus was born of miraculous birth.

God said in the Quran: "The example of Jesus in the sight of God is like the example of Adam. God created him from clay and then said to him: "Be!" And he came into being. This is the truth from your Lord so do not be from those who doubt." (Quran 3:59-60)

From the outset it should be made clear that Muslims believe that Jesus is a Prophet of God, born from virgin birth, from a noble

mother, Mary, who was untouched by any man. The Angels said to Mary, "O Mary, verily God has chosen you, purified you from unbelief and immoral conduct, and chosen you above the women of creation." (Qur'an 3:42)

Then she was informed that she would have a son, "O Mary, verily God gives you the glad tidings of a word spoken by Him. His name will be the Messiah Jesus, son of Mary, held in honour in this world and in the Hereafter, and of those brought near to God." (Qur'an 3:45)

She was a virgin, untouched so she asked, "O my Lord, how shall I have a son when no man has touched me?" He replied, "So it will be, for God creates what He wills. When He has decreed something, He only says to it, 'Be!' and it is." (Qur'an 3:47)

So, Jesus was created from a command from God Almighty, he is not the son of God and nor is Mary "the mother of god." In defence of the accusations against his mother, God promised Mary that Jesus would speak whilst still a baby, "He will speak to the people in the cradle and in manhood, and he will be one of the righteous." (Qur'an 3:46)

TWO: Muslims believe Jesus was a Prophet sent by God, not the son of God, nor part of a Trinity.

After Jesus was taken into the Heavens, Christians incorrectly began to believe that since Jesus had no worldly human father, then God must be his literal father, and so the author of the Gospels of John who never met Jesus, stated almost a century after Christ: "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten son." (1 John 4:9)

Most Christian scholars do not believe that John or any of the Apostles wrote these words. So, these are clearly not the words of God, nor the words of Christ. And this ultimately led to the Prophet Jesus (peace be upon him) himself being worshipped by later Christians. Consequently, this was the introduction of the worship of others besides God into Christianity.

Islam categorically forbids this attribution of a son to God: "Say: He is Allah, the One. Allah is the Self-Sufficient He begets not, nor was He begotten, and there is none co-equal or comparable unto Him." (Quran 112:1-4)

Indeed, there is no proof to show that any of the disciples of Christ worshipped Jesus because they knew that to worship anyone other than God (whom the Muslims refer to as Allah) would be a clear violation of the first and most important of all the commandments in the Bible: "You shall have no other gods before me. You shall not make for yourselves any graven image, or any likeness of anything that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: You shall not bow down yourselves to them, nor serve them." (Exodus 20).

Therefore, to direct worship of any sort towards the Prophet Jesus or his mother is a clear violation of this universally agreed upon commandment. God commands similarly in the Quran: "And from His signs are the night and the day, and the Sun and Moon - so do not prostrate to the Sun or the Moon but prostrate to God alone, the one who created them if it is He whom you truly [claim to] worship." (Quran 41:37)

Furthermore, God states: "They have disbelieved who say: God is the Messiah son of Mary." (Quran 5:72) And: "They have disbelieved who say: God is the third of three [in a Trinity]." (Quran 5:73)

THREE: Muslims believe that Jesus and Mary were noble humans, servants of God and not objects of worship.

As such Muslims revere the Prophet Jesus, and they likewise revere Mary, the mother of the Messiah. God stated in the Quran: "The Messiah son of Mary is but a Messenger of God and Messengers before him have passed away, and his mother was a truthful woman—they both used to eat food." (Quran 5:75)

In this verse God makes clear that Jesus is a Messenger of God, Mary is a truthful woman, and both were humans because they ate food, which was provided to them by their Lord—showing that they were reliant upon their Lord. Anyone who directs worship to a Prophet, a saint or any other being besides God (Allah) is a polytheist.

FOUR: Jesus was a sincere and humble servant of God.

"And behold! God will say on the Day of Judgment: 'O Jesus son of Mary! Did you say unto men, worship me and my mother as gods instead of Allah?' He will say: 'Glory to Thee! Never could I say what I had no right to say. Had I said such a thing, you would indeed have known it. You know what is in my inner self, though I know not what is in Yours. For You know in full all that is hidden. Never did I say to them anything except what You commanded me to say: 'Worship Allah, my Lord and your Lord.' And I was a witness over them while I lived among them. When You took me up, you were the Watcher over them, and You are a witness to all thing.'" (Quran 5:116-117).

Even in the Bible there are clear statements showing that Jesus (peace be upon him) would direct worship to Allah. Read here a verse from the Christian Bible read by all Christian Arabs: "And Jesus said to him: Why do you call me good? No one is good except Allah alone!" (Mark 10:18)

Here Jesus distinguishes himself from God, i.e., that he is the worshipper and Allah is the one to be worshipped. In the Old Testament of the Arabic Bible, we find the following: "In the beginning Allah created the Heavens and the Earth" (Genesis, verse 1).

Many Christians in the West become astonished when they read these words, because they imagined that Allah is exclusively the deity of the Muslims, but the reality is that Allah is the Lord and God who created Adam and made him the first Prophet, He is the same God who sent Noah, Abraham, Isaac, Ishmael, Jacob, Moses, John, Jesus and Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon them all). Many people in the West perceive Allah as a "foreign" god of the Arabs. But now you can see that the name Allah refers to the One God, Lord and Creator of all existence, who has the sole right to be worshipped.

FIVE: Muslims believe that Jesus was not crucified but rather he was taken up into the Heavens before he could be harmed:

"They said in boast: 'We killed the Messiah Jesus son of Mary, the Messenger of God.' But they killed him not, nor did they crucify him - but it was only made to appear as such to them." (Quran 4:157)

The Quran informs us: “And remember when God said: O Jesus, I will take you and raise you to Myself and clear you from the forged statements of those who disbelieve.” (Quran 3:55)

So, he was raised to the Heavens before they could capture him and kill him. Then God placed his image on another who was killed in his place. This further leads to the Islamic belief that he was not resurrected after death because he did not die. However, the Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) stated that Jesus will descend before the Last Day to establish God’s worship and justice on earth, he will then die as others die.

This ascension of Jesus into the heavens is also mentioned in the Bible: “And while they were gazing into heaven as Jesus ascended, behold, two men stood by them in white robes (Angels), and said, “Men of Galilee, why do you stand looking into heaven? This Jesus, who was taken up from you into heaven, will come in the same way as you saw him go into heaven.” (Acts 1:11)

Christian scribes, however, decided to make this ascension seem as though it occurred after the so-called resurrection so as to fit in with later Christian doctrine which prescribed that Jesus “the son of God” died for the sins of mankind.

So, without the death and subsequent resurrection of Christ, this doctrine would have no validity. Islam teaches that each individual carries the burden of his own sins or the sins he teaches others—and God readily accepts the repentance of the believing servant when he seeks forgiveness from God by calling upon Him directly and seeking His Mercy without any need of intercessors.

Islam is staunchly monotheistic and regards any act of worship directed towards other than God to be polytheistic. So worship such as supplication, prostration, seeking refuge, seeking divine aid, assistance and support, seeking forgiveness and deliverance and so on can only be sought from the one true God, Allah.

SIX: Muslims affirm and believe in the Miracles of Jesus (peace be upon him) that took place by the permission of God.

God said: "O Jesus son of Mary! Remember my favour to you and to your mother when I supported you with the Angel Gabriel so that you spoke to the people from the cradle as a baby and in maturity.

Behold! I taught you the Book and the Wisdom, the Torah and the Gospel. And you made from clay the figure of a bird and you breathed into it, and it became a living bird by my permission, and you healed those born blind, and the lepers by my permission. And behold! You brought forth the dead by my permission.

And when I restrained the Children of Israel from you when they resolved to kill you after you came to them with clear proofs—and those who disbelieved among them said, 'This is nothing but magic.'" (Quran 5:110)

These miracles were performed by the permission of God as a sign for the people of his Prophethood and truthfulness. Many of the Prophets were given miracles by the permission of Allah: Moses parted the Red Sea by God's permission, Muhammad split the moon in two by God's permission and so on.

SEVEN: Jesus (peace be upon him) is the brother of the Prophets.

The Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) said: "I am the closest of all the people to Jesus the son of Mary in this life and in the Hereafter." His Companions asked him: "How is that O Messenger of God?" He replied: "The Prophets are paternal brothers – their mothers are different but their Religion is one, and there was no Prophet between myself and Jesus."

It is established by way of the Torah, the Gospels, the Quran and the Prophetic tradition that the lineage of both Muhammad and Jesus goes back to the Prophet Abraham (peace be upon them all).

Abraham had two sons: Ishmael and Isaac. Isaac's son was Jacob also known as Israel. Jacob had twelve sons from whom emanate the Children of Israel, its tribes and its Prophets.

From the lineage of the Prophet Ishmael descended the Prophet Muhammad through the Arabian tribes.

All of mankind are obligated by these revealed texts to accept Muhammad (peace and blessings be upon him) as the final Prophet and the Quran as the final revelation that has abrogated all previous revelations. God, the Mighty and Majestic, has commanded the people to testify, "There is no deity worthy of worship [in truth] besides Allah (God), and Muhammad is His servant and Messenger – and Jesus the son of Mary is His servant and Messenger." You too can testify to this right now.

EIGHT: The unbelievers plotted against Jesus in his life to have him killed but God saved him.

God said in the Qur'an, "Meanwhile the disbelievers plotted to have Jesus killed, and God plotted in response, and God is the best of plotters." (Qur'an 3:54)

The unbelievers plotted to kill Jesus, but God plotted in response to the wrongdoers. So, this plot of God is a praiseworthy attribute because it establishes justice.

God changed the form and features of one of the people present so that he resembled Jesus. It is said that one of those who plotted against Jesus was changed by God to look like Jesus, and was executed in his place, though he pleaded that he was not Jesus. He left out to get Jesus killed but found himself being arrested and executed. So that sealed the plot of God against them in the best way.

Another report stated that when the unbelievers came to seize Jesus, Jesus asked his disciples who would wish to take his place in this world to be seized and killed, and in turn receive the promise of Paradise for his sacrifice. So, one of the disciples stepped forward, was seized and executed. In this is the fruition of the plot of God in response to their plotting in that they were not able to kill Jesus.

God stated, "They say in boast, 'We killed the Messiah Jesus son of Mary, the Messenger of Allah.' But they killed him not, nor did they crucify him, but the resemblance of Jesus was put over another man." (Quran 4:157)

NINE: Muslims believe that Jesus (peace be upon him) is the anointed Messiah who will return at the end of time and fight and kill the Anti-Christ.

The Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessings of God be upon him) said, "By Him in whose Hand is my very soul, Jesus the son of Mary will soon descend among you as a just judge. He will break the cross, kill the swine, abolish the jizyah (the duty paid by non-Muslims living under the protection of a Muslim country) and the wealth will pour forth to such an extent none will accept charity." (Al-Bukhārī no. 2222)

The cross is not but an object of torture and execution used in ancient times, it is not a symbol of God or Christ. So, it is strange that centuries after Christ, it is used as a charm, kissed, revered and worshipped! Would Jesus (peace be upon him) recognise this strange practice to be a teaching that he taught his disciples?! Furthermore, since Jesus was not crucified, the cross has no connection to him, even symbolically.

The Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) also said, "There is no prophet between me and Jesus (peace be upon him). He will descend to the earth, and when you see him, you will recognise him as a man of medium height, reddish fair, wearing two light yellow garments, and he will look as if drops were falling down from his head though it will not be wet... He will kill the Antichrist and will live on the earth for forty years and then die. Then the Muslims will pray the funeral prayer for him." (Abu Dāwūd, no. 4324)

So, the true followers of Jesus today also believe in Muhammad as a Messenger, and devoted servant of the same God who sent Jesus (peace be upon them both).

TEN: Choose Islam today.

God stated in the Quran: "Say: We believe in God and in that which has been revealed to us, and that which was revealed to Abraham, Ishmael, Isaac, Jacob and to the Tribes of Israel, and that which has been given to Moses and Jesus, and that which was given to the Prophets from their Lord. We do not discriminate against any of them, and to Him (the one true God) we have submitted." (Quran 2:136)

The Prophet Muhammad (peace and blessing be upon him) said, "Whoever says, 'I testify that none has the right to be worshipped except God alone, He has no partners in worship – and Muhammad is His devoted servant and Messenger, and Jesus is His devoted servant, the son of His maid-servant Mary, he was God's word which He announced unto Mary and His spirit – and he testifies that Paradise is true, and Hellfire is true – God will enter him into Paradise through whichever of the eight gates of he pleases." (Al-Bukhārī, no. 3435)

This single utterance spoken sincerely and truthfully will enter you into the Islamic fold and put you on a path to Paradise and God's eternal pleasure.
